TO: AMB. STEVENSON AND AMB. YOST

FROM: Mr. Cleveland

be much better for the time being not to have the last exchange between U Thant and Amb. Stevenson, containing references to the President's assurances on non-invasion of Cuba, released publicly.

Both the Department and the White House feel it would publicly as a new assurance given before we know whatkind of trouble Castro will make when he sees U Thant.

The thought is that this correspondence would be taken prefer not to make this correspondence public for the time

Could you tell Narasimhan that the President would
